THE MRA CROCUS AWARD FOR LITERACY: ADMINISTRATORS GUIDELINES FOR SELECTING THE RECIPIENT(s)

This award will be presented to exemplary administrators who have promoted literacy in their schools. The administrator may be a principal or vice-principal at the elementary, middle years or high school level. A worthy administrative team of a principal and vice-principal may be nominated. Nominations must include a description of the administrator's specific actions in support of literacy, supporting letters from staff, and documentation not exceeding two pages in length. The criteria for the award include:

The administrator:

- Should be a role model for students and staff
- Promotes and supports innovative and effective school literacy plans, initiatives and programs by allocating resources, providing opportunities for ongoing teacher collaboration and professional learning, and funding for Professional Development
- Demonstrates an in-depth understanding of and commitment to fostering literacy development for all learners
- Encourages balanced and comprehensive literacy assessment, teaching and learning across all curriculum areas
- Facilitates outreach to strengthen parent partnerships and community connections

Deadline for submissions: April 28, 2023
